June presentation

The beginning of the Seleukid era is dated from July 1, 312 BC, when Seleukos I Nikator (the Victorious) returned to Babylon in triumph after literally having had to flee the city in the middle of the night due to an invasion by the powerful Antigonos Monophthalmos (The One-eyed), a former general of Alexander the Great and his son Demetrios I Poliorketes (Besieger of Cities) in 316 BC. - Joh R

May presentation

Bruce S gave a fabulous presentation on Connecticut Coppers that included this tidbit. Abel Buell, one of the issue's die makers, was once convicted of counterfeiting. "His punishment consisted of imprisonment, cropping and branding. The tip of his ear was cut off, held on the tongue, and replaced, where it grew on. He was branded on the forehead, so high up that the hair afterward covered the scar. But the hot iron was held on long enough to say, 'God Save the King.'"
